(F	For personal injury, civil rights, employment discrimination or medical malpractice case	es only): Plaintiff's deposition shall be taken first, and shall be completed by	(In other types of cases the depositions will proceed in whatever order they are noticed	l and there is no requirement for plaintiff's deposition to take place first). PLEASE NOTE: the p	ohrase "all discovery, including expert discovery"
means that the parties must select and disc	close their experts' identities and opinions, as required

- and it will be completed no later than _______, after which the parties may request a settlement conference.
- 7. Any in limine motions, as well as proposed voir dire questions and proposed jury instructions, shall be served and filed no later than 60 days after the close of discovery. No pretrial order will be required unless specifically ordered by the Court.
- 8. No motion for summary judgment may be served after the date the pre-trial submissions are due. The filing of a motion for summary judgment does not relieve the parties of the obligation to file the pre-trial submissions on the assigned date in the absence of an Order providing such relief. Any opposition to a summary judgment motion shall be served and filed no later than 60 days after service of the motion; reply papers, if any, shall be served and filed no later than 10 days after service of the opposition. Page limits for such motions are governed by the designated Magistrate Judge's individual practices.
- 8. Discovery disputes will be resolved under the White Plains Magistrate Judges' standard Discovery Order. The existence of a discovery dispute will not result in any extension of the discovery deadline or trial-ready date.

- 9. This scheduling order may be altered or amended only on a showing of good cause not foreseeable at the time this order is entered. Counsel should not assume that extensions will be granted as a matter of routine.
- 10. Counsel must confer about the prospect of consenting to the jurisdiction of the designated Magistrate Judge for all purposes, including trial, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §636(c). If the parties consent, then all proceedings, including trial, will take place before the designated Magistrate Judge. Consent forms for this purpose are available on the Court's website, and consent may occur at any time during the proceedings.
